by making a sacrifice!

Q: Why did God put the Tree of Knowledge in Eden at all, if A+E weren't supposed to touch it?

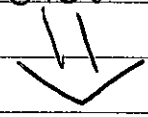

They were called to sacrifice

For A+E, doing good came naturally → they had no sinful desires! *

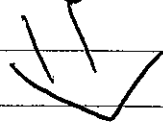

their wills by putting God first

Only one thing would've been hard for them: avoiding the Tree God told them to avoid.

God had placed the Tree there as an opportunity: an opportunity for A+E to make a sacrifice for God!

Sacrifice proves love

*except the desire to put yourself first.

apostasy: denying the one true God.

Q 2: Wait, God knew A+E would fail to prove their love, so why did He give them the chance?

So then why would God let A+E do this sin and corrupt human nature?

⇒ God never allows any evil unless He can bring about a greater good.

What is the greater good from Original Sin?

Answer: ^{had never given His life for us (we would never appreciate how much God loves us.)}

This should make us turn to God!

St. Paul calls Original sin "felix culpa" meaning happy fault, because it brought us so great a savior!
