Moses eventually says yes to God, and returns to Egypt. Aaron meets him on the way. They go to Pharaoh and deliver God's message.

Pharaoh rejects God and His message → he tells the slaves they will make bricks w/o straw.

His goal was to turn Israel against Moses.

Poor Moses probably felt like quitting...

God did not quit (neither did Moses by God's grace)
God sent the plagues to convince Pharaoh.

These were miracles to show Egypt who the real God was.
