

desensitization: the process by which evil bothers us less and less because of repeated exposure

6/6/10

7th: You shall not steal

theft: taking something we have no right to take

Imagine a hungry person at the point of starvation living in a place without help (doesn't happen much today)

St. Thomas Aquinas said for this kind of person, taking needed food would NOT be theft!

Along those lines, if today we do nothing to help the poor, we are breaking Com #7 by 'stealing' what is needed to live.

Q U I Z W E D: meaning of all the commandments we finish

ur hear.

6/6/16
(continued)

The title of 10% is a good guideline here.