Why was the flood a loving thing for God to do?

- The people sinned horribly, and refused to repent.
- God still loved these people, and wanted them in Heaven.
- Problem: no Heaven w/o repenting.
- God keeps warning these people that their time is running out, especially through Noah.
- Finally their time is up: God sends the flood:
 - it was just punishment for their sins
 - it was also proof that God is real
 - it was a strong reason to repent
 - it also gave them time to repent.

(this is a good thing b/c it benefits Abraham!)

God tests Abraham

holocaust: burnt offering

God asks Abraham to sacrifice
Issac, and God doesn't explain all the details ...

Abraham was asked to put complete faith in God, and he did.

Issac is probably 16-18 yrs. old.
