→ NO. Though he experienced much fear, he faced his fears
w/ God's strength.

→ God did not remove his fears;
instead, He used his fear for a greater ~~quest~~
good.

Job 6:33-40

- 1) read the passage
- 2) was G. right to ask for signs again?
- 3) explain:

Well, he probably thought the sign
before was a hoax, or he forgot about it. He was probably too dumbfounded to realize that the first sign did indeed prove that he was talking to God himself. So, it wasn't wrong, but it wasn't right either.

Where's your AXE? (ACTS)
due Friday

Gideon used his axe/acts to prove that he had faith in God.
