After Elijah is taken to Heaven, God sends Elisha* to the Northern Kingdom to try to convince them to repent. The cycle had returned again.

*2 Ki. 5 → Naaman the Syrian by 722 BC., Israel's time is up. They are conquered and dispersed by Assyria, never to be restored. Israel had rejected all the prophets God had sent to them! Meanwhile, the southern kingdom is being preached to by Isaiah... They had rejected God too, but they repented → God saved them miraculously! Sadly by 587 BC, Judah is back in the cycle → they also had the sin of presumption: they thought God would have to protect them b/c they had the temple.

In 587-6 BC, Babylon conquers Judah and destroys the temple.
