About the Saint Bernadette School Pre-Kindergarten Program:

- The class has a certified teacher assisted by an aide at all times (Two adults per class).
- The Pre-K 4 program is limited to 20 students in the class.
- The school building has a secure-entry system on each door.
- Pre-K has the support of the school's entire professional staff and has access to all facilities on campus including the library, school hall, art room, playground, chapel and music room.
- For admission to the program, students must be age-appropriate for the grade level by September 1st (Four years old) and must be fully toilet trained.
- The curriculum provides developmentally-appropriate programs, builds relationships with the child and family, and includes a variety of stimulating learning activities.
- The students can participate in the school's hot lunch program.
